

Dawn Johnson

Bio

Dawn Johnson was born on June 3, 1970 in St. Louis, Missouri. She started singing at the precious age of five years old. She flourished in Middle and High School winning several choral awards and a leading role as a gospel singer in the Broadway stage play “Purlie”.

Dawn sang in her home church choir utilizing her gift to glorify God. She even sang in several local groups singing gospel music with “The Voices of Joy”, “Youth On the Move for Christ”, and “The Youth Gospel Music Conference Workshop” founded by Janice Moorehead, Charlotte Brown and Cheryl Ray. “The Youth Gospel Music Conference has really been a blessing to me as well as support.” While singing with The Youth Gospel Music Conference, Dawn was discovered by another gospel music choir under the direction of Rev. Dwight Robeson. This choir was called, “The St. Louis Gospel Spirit” and later “The Golden Gospel Pearls”. Dawn travelled abroad singing in other countries such as Canada, Germany, Sweden Switzerland, and Russia with the Golden Gospel Pearls on a European Tour. Dawn reunited with Rev.

Robeson in 2009 to sing abroad with the “Golden Voices of Gospel. She has been under the direction of Rev. Dwight Robeson for eleven years.” “ I love to sing of God’s goodness and travel the world singing about Him!” “ Rev. Robeson is like family to me and I respect his years of sacrifice in the gospel industry.” “He has taught me so much about persevering, using wisdom and longevity in the gospel industry.”

Dawn loves all genres of music especially Jazz, Gospel and R&B. Some of her favorite artist are Aretha Franklin, Kim Burrell, Donny Hathaway, Diane Reeves, Kelly Price, Rashaan Patterson just to name a few. Dawn really loves the fresh sounds of Israel & New Breed, Fred Hammond and her favorite gospel singer Tamela Mann.

In the early nineties, Dawn fell in love with the pure, sweet sound of Praise & Worship music. She began to gravitate to the alluring scriptural words and its heavenly instrumentation.

When Dawn is not traveling she continues to serve as Choir Director of the Pavilion of Praise Christian Church Children's Choir and Praise & Worship Leader. She is also Praise & Worship Leader of her own ministry to the Lord, Dawn Johnson Ministries.

Dawn loves children and teens and is currently working full-time as a Expressive Arts Coordinator at Child-Center Marygrove in Florissant, Missouri where she has been working for the last seventeen years.

“I believe it is time for full-time ministry.” “ I’ve been praying about it and it is becoming more evident year after year.”

Dawn is also a humanitarian and volunteers with several charitable organizations such as World Vision, Mercy Ministries, Ronald Mc Donald House, The Saint Louis Crisis Nursery just to name a few.

Dawn has just released her own jewelry line called, Anointed Jewelry by Dawn J. in October 2010 and has been very successful in sells. Dawn is planning to go nation wide with her creations to display the beauty and quality of her jewelry line. “I got the revelation from God to plant into this jewelry line. Anointed means the power to do. Our slogan is Indwell. Empower. In-Style.” “ I feel you can be beautiful and stylish with the power of God exuding which is the real beauty from the Holy Spirit.”

“ I have a dream not to be rich but to be blessed where I can help others. If God doesn’t do another thing for me ...I want to take care of my mother. I prophesy that my mother will not have to worry about bills and how we are going to make ends meet from week to week.” “God has blessed and anointed me to use what I have to bring glory to His name. So, whatever it takes to see this prophecy fulfilled...I will do it in Jesus name.”

In 2007, Dawn received a revelation from God to go forth with a Praise & Worship mantle to spread around the world. Currently, Dawn is planning for local and international exposure and a future CD project called, “Metamorphosis” to release and worship the Lord in spirit and truth. This vision includes several talented singers and musicians from the around the world. Discover the ardent and highly anointed sounds of Dawn

Johnson. Log-on to www.e-dawndivajohnson.org